MAGNETIC TORPEDO LEVEL

SWTL001M

DESCRIPTION

The Swanson 225mm/9" magnetic torpedo level boasts impressive features that make it an essential tool for any project. Its high-grade solid aluminum frame ensures durability, allowing it to withstand tough conditions. The individual Brightview® vial windows offer superior low-light visibility, making it easy to read the measurements accurately. With a full-length strip magnet, this level provides a secure grip on metal surfaces, ensuring stability during use. Additionally, the high-impact composite inserts enhance the level's resilience, increasing its longevity. Whether you're working in dimly lit areas or need a reliable and sturdy tool, this Swanson torpedo level delivers exceptional performance and convenience with its easy-to-read vial windows and robust construction.
