BAILER SAILOR SPONGE

RV4505

DESCRIPTION

Introducing The Original Raven Bailer Sailor Sponge, a superior cleaning solution for boat, car, home, and commercial use. Specially treated with antibacterial properties, it prevents odors and bacteria growth, ensuring a hygienic cleaning experience. With its super absorbent nature, it can hold up to 10 times its weight in water, making it ideal for various cleaning and wiping tasks. Crafted from natural cellulose, this long-lasting sponge won't scratch surfaces, making it perfect for all paint surfaces. Proudly New Zealand owned, it offers unmatched quality and reliability for all your cleaning needs.

CARE: Rinse sponge before use to minimise any potential colour run. Test before using on light-coloured porous surfaces.
